A man giving his name as C. H. Chamberlain and his residence as Barre was in Montpelier city court Saturday on the charge of intoxication. He was fined $5, with costs of $6.20, which he didn't pay, and went to jail for 30 days.

Donald P. Saxton of Montpelier was in the same court at the same time and for the same offense, doubled. He went to jail for thirty days.

"In Mexico" is only one of the numerous songs in "A Royal Slave," which will be seen at the opera house to-night.

Perkins no longer idea of the rich, pulsing nature of Mexican life could be had than by hearing those splendid melodies, characteristic of the people and the time, sung by sweet-voiced singers, they carry their hearers back to the days of Maximilian, in the land of sunshine and of flowers.

The chemical engine of the fire department was called out a little before seven o'clock last evening for a fire which was burning in the grass on Burnham's meadow near Arthur Martin's wood-yard.

The blaze was extinguished without use of apparatus, drunken betting out the flames with bougies. A grass fire on Perrin hill yesterday afternoon and last evening attracted considerable attention, burning for several hours and covering a large portion of the hill.

The Montpelier correspondent of the Boston Sunday Herald had an article in yesterday's paper stating that G. Herbert Pape of this city is one of the three men now considered by the Vermont Democrats as a candidate for governor.

The other two are V. A. Bullard and J. E. Burke of Burlington. The article also states that the three are willing to accept the nomination, while friends of E. H. Porter of Wilmington are trying to secure his consent to run.

The agreements between steamship lines in the Mediterranean service having been broken, fares from New York have been greatly reduced, the North German and Navigation Generale lines setting tickets for $15 and $18 and one dollar putting them as low as $8. To take advantage of this low fare, 19 Italians will leave Barre to-night for Italy.

Included in this number are G. Tadi, G. Leo, B. Brigantini, R. Rosenthal, L. Martinielli, G. Fugattini and others.

There is something about the character of a newspaper correspondent as he is shown on the stage that is irresistibly attractive. He is always breezy, humorous, Bohemian, ready for fun, work or any old thing that comes along.

In Clarence Bennett's "A Royal Slave," which will be seen at the opera house, there is a correspondent who not only gets the news but gets the right people out of trouble and the other people in trouble and finally gets the dainty dancing girl as well. At the opera house this evening.

Rev. B. S. Taylor (Dakota cyclone), who has been extensively advertised as one of the evangelists in charge of the revival services now being conducted in this city, but who had previously been detained from coming to Barre, arrived in the city in time to conduct the services yesterday. He preached in the morning and afternoon on Prohibition—of Rum and Sin.

In the afternoon he laid down a 10-plank platform from the fifth and sixth chapters of St. Matthew on this Prohibition. Both the morning and afternoon services were largely attended. At five o'clock, having obtained permission from the authorities, a service was conducted at the bandstand on the city park. The subject for this service taken by Rev. Mr. Taylor was "Hell." This was also his subject at the evening service, when he preached a searching sermon, giving and proving some startling facts. The hall was crowded during the evening, many being compelled to stand, as the seating capacity was overtaxed. Rev. Mr. Taylor was called away this morning by some urgent campaigning business to his home in Moores, N. Y., but he stated, God willing, he should be here next Sabbath. Meanwhile the services will be continued throughout this week by Evangelist John Weightman, at the Worthen hall, corner of Keith avenue and North Main street, at 7 o'clock each evening. Services undenominational and open to all.

The Daylight Store

PRICE CONCESSION.

The following goods are either those marked down, bought in a sale or a purchase from some forced sale. They are worthy your time of looking and may save you a little money as will give you just what you will want for a Spring dress.

NEW PURCHASE

Of Wash Goods at but two-thirds of former prices.

A beautiful assortment of Arnold Batiste in very desirable checks. This is a finer material than gingham, more like Persian lawn with colored checks.

If the Arnold Print Works had not been forced into a receiver's hands last November these goods would now be 18 and 20c instead of 12 1/2c, as advertised. (These goods will not remain very long under that price.)

19-inch Navy Taffeta, one of Passavant's best 75c Taffetas, bought so that with a very small margin we are to sell it at only 59c per yard.

SILK TISSUES

There is always a good demand for Silk Tissues for evening and graduation dresses. These come in new styles and colorings and have started selling earlier than last season. The price is but 25c per yard.

For cheaper dresses we have a very pretty lot of small figured Dimities at but 12 1/2c per yard.

Our Colored Chiffons at 18c are goods made to sell at a higher price. It's a price concession that brings them out at 15c.

SILKS

We have just received a lot of Silks that are very cheap, as the following will explain:

26-inch Black Taffeta at 87c, with green edge, is very cheap. $1.00 would be a low price for this Silk.

Yard-wide Black Taffetas at $1.00 have been a thing of the past. We are not getting rich on this by selling it at $1.00.

Rajah Silks, all colors, at 75c. (Not 87c or $1.00.)

Yard-wide Belding's Satin for linings, in all colors, at $1.00 per yard.
